The Schedule

An Act to provide for the licensing of appraisers.

[25/2010]

[1 July 1906]

Short title

1. This Act is the Appraisers Act 1906.

[25/2010]

Definition of appraiser

2. Every person who values or appraises any estate or immovable property, lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any interest in possession or reversion, remainder or contingency in any estate or immovable property, for or on expectation of any hire, gain, fee or reward or valuable consideration to be paid to the person therefor, is deemed to carry on the business of an appraiser, and is an appraiser within the meaning of this Act.

[4/2021]

3. [Repealed by Act 25 of 2010]

Appraisers to be licensed

4. Every appraiser must take out a licence in Form A in the Schedule.

[7/2005]

5. [Repealed by Act 25 of 2010]

Power to grant licences

6.—(1) The Comptroller of Property Tax is empowered to grant licences under the provisions of this Act.

(2) Every licence granted under this Act must be granted under the hand of the Comptroller of Property Tax.

(3) The issue of any licence must be notified as soon as possible in the Gazette.

(4) On every such licence there must be paid in money by the person taking out or renewing the licence to the Comptroller of Property Tax such fee as may be prescribed by the Minister in respect of the class of licence to which the licence belongs.

(5) No licence may be granted or renewed under this Act until the fee has first been paid.

(6) The Minister may prescribe such fees as are referred to in subsection (4) by order in the Gazette and may prescribe different fees for different classes of licences.

Licences

7.—(1) Every licence to be taken out under the authority of this Act must state —

(a) the true name and place of abode of the person taking it out;

(b) the true date or time of granting the licence; and

(c) the principal place of business at which the trade or business for which the licence is granted is to be carried on.
