(2) Every licence expires on 31 December and must be renewed annually at least 10 days before the expiry of the licence.

(3) Any person who —

(a) having had such a licence continues to carry on the trade or business for which the licence was granted in the year next ensuing its expiry and omits to renew it; and

(b) carries on a trade or business required by this Act to be licensed without taking out a licence, shall, except as provided in this Act, each be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000.

8. [Repealed by Act 4 of 2021]

9. [Repealed by Act 4 of 2021]

Refusal and cancellation of licences

10. The Comptroller of Property Tax may refuse any application for a licence or to renew any licence, and may cancel the licence of any person who has been convicted of any offence under this Act or who has failed to account for or pay over any money or property which has come into his or her possession or control as a licensed person.

Evidence of misconduct

11. The judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction whether civil or criminal, having the effect of finding that any licensed person —

(a) is liable or responsible for any money or property come into his or her possession or control as a licensed person under circumstances amounting to a breach of trust or duty; or

(b) has paid or agreed to pay to his or her employer any part of his or her charges or expenses by way of return commission when the employer is a person accountable to any other person for the proceeds of the sale, is a ground for the cancellation of his or her licence.
